

NADAAA

HAYNES READING ROOM

NADAAA is a Boston-based architecture and urban design firm led by principal designer Nader Tehrani, winner of the American Academy of Arts and Letters' 2020 Arnold W. Brunner Prize. Tehrani leads the studio with partner Arthur Chang, AIA who also leads the office's fabrication workshop NADLAB. NADAAA is a platform for design investigation at a large scale and with a great geographic reach. NADAAA's projects range in scale from furniture to architecture and urban design, with a focus on craft, construction, and digital fabrication. The firm has received the Cooper-Hewitt National Design Award in Architecture, the American Academy of Arts and Letters Architecture Award, the Harleston Parker Award, the Hobson Award, numerous national, state, and local AIA awards, five American Architecture Awards, and eighteen Progressive Architecture awards. NADAAA's work has been exhibited at institutions including the Museum of Modern Art, the Boston Institute of Contemporary Art and LA MoCA, and is part of the permanent exhibit at the Nasher and the CCA. For the past seven years in a row NADAAA has ranked in the Top eleven design firms in Architect Magazine's Top 50 Firms in the United States, ranking as First three years in a row.
